

Art Call:

Artist in Residence / NEW MEDIA

SUBMISSIONS UNTIL SEPT 10 2017

DATES 2017_2018 in Puerto Varas - Chile

Digital Art Center in memory of Juan Downey announces the call Residency New Media, specially formulated for visual artists working with digital media and technology. The AIR consists in a two week stay at CADJD, Puerto Varas, Chile. It provides time and space to develop new media projects or investigations. Includes accommodation, studio, utilities and transportation Santiago - Pto.Varas - Santiago. National and international artists in different stages of development are invited to participate; except for residents of the Region of Los Lagos, Chile. There are two grants available for highlighted projects that apply. Other artists are required to finance 50% of the cost, 260.000 Chilean pesos or 650.00 US dollars for international applicants year 2017-2018.

This residence is focused on visual artists who use different technologies; including video art, medial installation, web art, sound art, digital engraving, 3D animation, interactive media, programming, digital communities, digital painting, software, apps, interconnected projects, sculptures www, projects self-generative, performance and radio-image, among others.

Application Instructions

Send online application form available here.

Include personal data and links to creative project proposal to develop during the two weeks residency.

Call Opens: May 20, 2017

Call End: September 10, 2017

Shortlisted Interviews via skype: First week of October

Notification of Results: November 10, 2017

Residency: Two weeks agreed between December 2017 and June 2018

Methodology of the Residence

This AIR offers time and space to research and produce work of visual arts and new media for two weeks in Puerto Varas, at Centro de Arte Digital en

Memoria de Juan Downey. Culminating in an activity with the community. Artists have 24 hour access to a studio located in CADJD; along with bus transportation from Santiago, housing, utilities and half board, the value is 600 US Dollars. Materials and other expenses are not included. CADJD extends an invitation to be used for application for funding by external grants.

The resident artists are invited to use new media and experimental technologies to produce new work.

Financing

There are two grants available for highlighted projects that apply. Other artists are required to finance 50% of the cost, 260.000 Chilean pesos or 650.00 US dollars for international applicants year 2017-2018. Includes accommodation, utilities, 24 hrs studio, transportation Santiago - Puerto Varas - Santiago. Artists are responsible for materials and extra expenses. It is suggested to apply for additional funding opportunities. A letter of invitation will be extended to those selected for this purpose.

Selection Committee

Applications will be reviewed by a curatorial committee composed of three cultural agents, their names will be revealed once published the results. Any circumstance beyond the rules will be resolved by the selection committee and its decision is final. There is a signed agreement of responsibilities that both parties must comply.

Digital Art Center Juan Downey in Puerto Varas is a nonprofit organization focused on researching new media, visual arts and technology; dedicated to the memory of visual artist Juan Downey; precursor video art. More information on www.cadjd.org

Acknowledgments

The State of Juan Downey
Volunteers and Donors of CADJD

Sponsors

Anuk Media
El Heraldo Austral
WirenetChile
Chester Beer

Contact

cadjuandowney@gmail.com
56-9-4294 6547
www.cadjd.org
<https://www.facebook.com/cadjuandowney/>
Atte. Centro de Arte Digital en memoria de Juan Downey
Arturo Prat 281 C, Puerto Varas, 5550000, Chile.